□ 1856

Messrs. LAMBORN, BURGESS and HOEKSTRA changed their vote from “yea” to “nay.”

Mr. HOBSON changed his vote from “nay” to “yea.”

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

HONORING THE LIFE OF CLEM MCSPADDEN

(Mr. BOREN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BOREN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of a true Oklahoma statesman.

Clem Rogers McSpadden passed away on Monday, July 7, 2008, after a lengthy battle with cancer. Clem was the great nephew of Will Rogers and served as a Member of the U.S. House from 1973 until 1975.

If you ask Oklahomans about Clem, they will tell you about how he helped them during his time in elected office, how they remember him announcing rodeo championships, or how he gave them some great advice about life.

Clem was also a highly respected Member of this Chamber. He was honored with being the first freshman Member ever to be appointed to the Rules Committee. He also helped create the Rural Caucus, which I am honored to be a member of today.

Clem will not just be remembered as a former Congressman or President pro tem of the State Senate. As those of us from Oklahoma know, Clem had a positive impact on his community, his State, and the Nation in many ways, ranging from family, to military service, to rodeo, to business, and to ranching.

In keeping with a proud family legacy, Clem represented Oklahoma values on a daily basis: Hard work and personal responsibility. This is truly what helped make him one of Oklahoma's favorite sons, just like his great uncle, Will Rogers. There are very few people who have been such a great role model to us all.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Donna and the entire McSpadden family. Thousands of Oklahomans and rodeo fans across the Nation share the sadness of their loss.

I would like to yield at this time to the dean of our Oklahoma House delegation, FRANK LUCAS.

Mr. LUCAS. Thank you, Congressman BOREN.

Clem McSpadden was a child of the Great Depression. He was a veteran of the Second World War, a 1948 graduate of Oklahoma State University, an 18-year veteran of the State Senate of Oklahoma, and 2 years in this body. The tales, the stories, the insight, the history of all those institutions that he was a part of, he was a walking, living legacy.

Maybe I should put it this way: This Chamber was graced that Clem was a Member of this body for 2 years. We in Oklahoma are graced that Clem was a member of our State for 82 years. He will be missed. He will be missed.

With that I yield back to his successor in the Second District of Oklahoma, Congressman BOREN.

Mr. BOREN. Madam Speaker, I respectfully request Members to join me in a moment of silence to remember Clem's legacy.
